NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: October 20, 2008

Released: October 22, 2008

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”)¹, we find that RMG Communications (“RMG”)² apparently willfully or repeatedly violated section 227 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (“Act”), and the Commission’s related rules and orders, by delivering at least one unsolicited advertisements to the telephone facsimile machine of one consumer.³ Based on the facts and circumstances surrounding these apparent violations, we find that RMG is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $4,500.

II. BACKGROUND

2. Section 227(b)(1)(C) of the Act makes it “unlawful for any person within the United States, or any person outside the United States if the recipient is within the United States . . . to use any telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send, to a telephone facsimile machine, an

² RMG Communications has offices at 3401 Norman Berry Drive, Suite 114, East Point, GA 30344, 6009 W. Parker Road, Suite 149-114, Plano, TX 75093, and 16901 Dallas Parkway, Addison, TX 75001. Greg Horne is listed as the contact person for RMG. Accordingly, all references in this NAL to RMG also encompass the foregoing individual and all other principals and officers of this entity, as well as the corporate entity itself.

unsolicited advertisement.”⁴ The term “unsolicited advertisement” is defined in the Act and the Commission’s rules as “any material advertising the commercial availability or quality of any property, goods, or services which is transmitted to any person without that person’s prior express invitation or permission in writing or otherwise.”⁵ Under the Commission’s rules, an “established business relationship”⁶ exception permits a party to deliver a message to a consumer if the sender has an established business relationship with the recipient and the sender obtained the number of the facsimile machine through the voluntary communication by the recipient, directly to the sender, within the context of the established business relationship, or through a directory, advertisement, or a site on the Internet to which the recipient voluntarily agreed to make available its facsimile number for public distribution.⁷

3. On September 9, 2006, in response to one or more consumer complaints alleging that RMG had faxed unsolicited advertisements, the Enforcement Bureau (“Bureau”) issued a citation⁸ to RMG, pursuant to section 503(b)(5) of the Act.⁹ The Bureau cited RMG for using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device, to send unsolicited advertisements for health and life insurance and t-shirts with company logo to a telephone facsimile machine, in violation of section 227 of the Act and the Commission’s related rules and orders. The citation warned RMG that subsequent violations could result in the imposition of monetary forfeitures of up to $11,000 per violation, and included a copy of the consumer complaints that formed the basis of the citation.¹⁰ The citation informed RMG that within 30 days of the date of the citation, it could either request an interview with Commission staff, or could provide a written statement responding to the citation. RMG did not request an interview or otherwise respond to the citation.¹¹

4. Despite the citation’s warning that subsequent violations could result in the imposition of monetary forfeitures, we have received additional consumer complaints indicating that RMG continued to engage in such conduct after issuance of the citation.¹² We base our action here specifically on a

⁶ An “established business relationship” is defined as a prior or existing relationship formed by a voluntary two-way communication “with or without an exchange of consideration, on the basis of an inquiry, application, purchase or transaction by the business or residential subscriber regarding products or services offered by such person or entity, which relationship has not been previously terminated by either party.” 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(5). See also 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(2).

¹⁰ Commission staff mailed the citation to the following addresses: 3401 Norman Berry Drive, Suite 114, East Point, GA 30344, and 6009 W. Parker Road, Suite 149-114, Plano, TX 75093. See n.2, supra.

complaint filed by a consumer establishing that RMG continued to send one unsolicited advertisement to a telephone facsimile machine after the date of the citation.¹³

5. Section 503(b) of the Act authorizes the Commission to assess a forfeiture for each violation of the Act, or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission under the Act, by a non-common carrier or other entity not specifically designated in section 503 of the Act. The maximum penalty for such a violation is $11,000 for a violation occurring before September 2, 2008, and $16,000 for a violation occurring on or after September 2, 2008.¹⁴ In exercising such authority, we are to take into account “the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”¹⁵

III. DISCUSSION

A. Violations of the Commission’s Rules Restricting Unsolicited Facsimile Advertisements

6. We find that RMG apparently violated section 227 of the Act and the Commission’s related rules and orders by using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send at least one unsolicited advertisement to the consumer identified in the Appendix. This NAL is based on evidence that the consumer received an unsolicited fax advertisement from RMG after the Bureau’s citation. The facsimile transmission advertised mortgage loans and health care. Further, according to the complaint, the consumer neither had an established business relationship with RMG nor gave RMG permission to send the facsimile transmission.¹⁶ The fax at issue here therefore falls within the definition of an “unsolicited advertisement.”¹⁷ Based on the entire record, including the consumer complaint, we conclude that RMG apparently violated section 227 of the Act and the Commission’s related rules and orders by sending one unsolicited advertisement to one consumer’s facsimile machine.

¹⁶ See complaint dated Nov. 8, 2007, from Alberto Hernandez (stating that he has never purchased anything from the company being advertised in the fax or made an inquiry or application to the company or given consent for the company to send the fax). The complainant involved in this action is listed in the Appendix.

¹⁷ See 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(4); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(13) (definition previously at § 64.1200(f)(10)).

B. Proposed Forfeiture

7. We find that RMG is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $4,500. Although the Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement does not establish a base forfeiture amount for violating the prohibition against using a telephone facsimile machine to send unsolicited advertisements, the Commission has previously considered $4,500 per unsolicited fax advertisement to be an appropriate base amount.¹⁸ We apply that base amount to the apparent violation. Thus, a forfeiture of $4,500 is proposed. RMG will have the opportunity to submit evidence and arguments in response to this NAL to show that no forfeiture should be imposed or that some lesser amount should be assessed.¹⁹

IV. CONCLUSION AND ORDERING CLAUSES

8. We have determined that RMG Communications apparently violated section 227 of the Act and the Commission's related rules and orders by using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send at least one unsolicited advertisement to the consumer identified in the Appendix. We have further determined that RMG Communications is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $4,500.
